Sophia is a Development Teacher

Hello everyone,

There is a little town which is far from a big city. It is isolated and the only school. It is very small and does not have much support, so the people who live in the town cannot get a good education.

One day, a new lady moves to the town. Her name is Sophia. She is a lively and radiant person. She opens a free learning center so that the kids who live in the town can get a better education.

Lots of young people started going to the learning center. Sophia is busy all day and has to get a staff of volunteers to help her! The kids have lots of fun and learn many new things with the kind volunteers. They even improved their grades at school. Most of the parents in town are thrilled with Sophia's learning center, but one mother, Judy, is not convinced.

"Who would want to open a free learning center and work for free?" Judy wonders. "Sophia must be a liar or a criminal. She has something to hide."

But her neighbors disagree. "That is not true," they said, she is just a good person and she wants to improve our community for all of us.

We believe that there are still few personalities who are working like Sophia, but as per the current requirement we are in need of their support and we will be lucky to have more Sophia's in our community.

Thank you and always support the quality education.
