Why speaking in English is important

Hello everyone,

Today, English has become a world language. Whether you are a beginner or expert in English, spoken English is very important and it can lead you to the next level.

The English language plays an important role in our life. It is understood by many people around the world since it is the most spoken language. The English language helps us to communicate with nearly all the people around the world and even for internet access.

To run any kind of business or to have any job, we need better English and it can be possible with the help of daily communication practice in English.

The ability to fluently speak English showcases an importance of your personality. You will be confident while taking part in a debate, meeting, job interviews, or presentation.

Generally, people who speak good English can get the best job with a good salary. Improving your English skills can increase your chances of employment in other countries.

Rule 1. Speak only in English with your brother, sisters & friends.

Before I conclude my topic, my dear friends I would like to suggest to myself and to you all that we should apply this Rule 1 in our daily life.

Thank you and have a nice day.
